(Jury Trial Demanded)

NOW COME Plaintiffs, complaining of Defendants, and allege and say as follows:

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton is a citizen and resident of San Bernardino County, California.
2. Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton is the Administratrix of the Estate of Gregory (also known as "Gregor") Frederick Kohlbach (hereinafter referred to as "Decedent") having been duly appointed by the Clerk of Superior Court of Durham County, North Carolina in file number 2005-E-1104.
3. Plaintiff Gary A. Kohlbach is a citizen and resident of Broward County, Florida.
4. Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton is the Decedent's mother and Plaintiff Gary A. Kohlbach is the Decedent's brother.

5. Defendant Madeline Harrison (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant Harrison") is a citizen and resident of Henderson County, North Carolina.
6. Defendant Harrison is the Decedent's ex-wife.
7. Defendant Harrison married Decedent on March 6, 1992, separated from him on November 7, 1999, and divorced him on September 25, 2000.
8. Defendant Science Applications International Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant SAIC") is a Delaware corporation which is duly licensed to conduct business in the State of North Carolina.
9. Defendant SAIC maintains a registered office in Wake County, North Carolina.
10. Defendant SAIC maintains a place of business in Wake County, North Carolina.
11. Defendant The Vanguard Group, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant Vanguard") is a Pennsylvania corporation which is duly licensed to conduct business in the State of North Carolina.
12. Defendant Vanguard maintains a registered office in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.
13. On July 21, 2005, Decedent died intestate in Durham County, North Carolina without a wife or any children.
14. At the time of his death, the Decedent had two retirement accounts with Defendant SAIC: (1) a 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, bearing plan number 090518 (hereinafter referred to as "Decedent's 401(k) retirement account") and (2) an Employee Stock Retirement Plan, bearing plan number 092518 (hereinafter referred to as "Decedent's ESRP retirement account").

15. At the time of his death, Decedent's 401(k) retirement account had a balance of approximately $23,207.54 and Decedent's ESRP retirement account had a balance of approximately $76,010.66.

16. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Decedent's 401(k) and ESRP retirement accounts (hereinafter collectively referred to as "retirement accounts") were administered by Defendant SAIC.

17. At all times relevant to this Complaint, the funds in Decedent's retirement accounts were held by Defendant Vanguard as trustee.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. The allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein by reference.

19. On or about December 7, 1992, Decedent was hired by Defendant SAIC to work as a systems analyst in SAIC's Durham, North Carolina office.

20. On December 8, 1992, Defendant SAIC presented Decedent with a Beneficiary Designation Form in order for him to designate a beneficiary for the following SAIC retirement plans: SAIC Profit Sharing Retirement Plan, SAIC Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP), SAIC Cash or Deferred Arrangement (CODA), the Technology Services Corporation Profit Sharing Retirement Plan, and the Comsystems Profit Sharing Retirement Plan.

21. At said time, Decedent designated his then-spouse, Defendant Harrison, as the primary beneficiary and his brother, Plaintiff Gary A. Kohlbach, as the contingent beneficiary for the retirement plans listed in the preceding paragraphs.

22. This Beneficiary Designation Form did not apply to the SAIC Stock Bonus Retirement Plan which was the predecessor to the SAIC Employee Stock Retirement Plan.

23. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that Decedent never executed a Beneficiary Designation Form for his ESRP retirement account.

24. Before the year 2000, Decedent established and made contributions to his SAIC 401(k) retirement account (formerly the CODA and the Profit Sharing Retirement Plans) and to his ESRP retirement account.

25. On or about February 2, 2000, Decedent took a leave of absence from Defendant SAIC and, upon information and belief, never worked for SAIC again.

26. On September 25, 2000, the marriage of Decedent and Defendant Harrison was dissolved by a Stipulated Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage in the Marion County Circuit Court of the State of Oregon (hereinafter referred to as the "Divorce Judgment"). A true and accurate copy of the Divorce Judgment is attached hereto as Exhibit #1.

27. Pursuant to the Divorce Judgment, Decedent was awarded his SAIC retirement accounts free and clear of any claims of Defendant Harrison.

28. Defendant Harrison waived and forfeited all interest that she had in Decedent's retirement accounts under the terms of the Divorce Judgment.

29. The Divorce Judgment also ordered each party to execute, acknowledge and deliver all documents and instruments necessary to complete the transfer of any property as ordered in the Judgment and stated that "[i]f any party fails to comply with this provision, this Judgment shall operate to convey title to the party to whom such property is awarded."

30. Defendant Harrison conveyed to Decedent all interest that she had in his retirement accounts under the terms of the Divorce Judgment.

31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that Decedent communicated the terms of the Divorce Judgment to Defendant SAIC and/or Defendant Vanguard and revoked the December 8, 1992 Beneficiary Designation Form.

32. Following the entry of the Divorce Judgment, Decedent did not execute any beneficiary designation forms which named Defendant Harrison as a primary or contingent beneficiary to his retirement accounts.

33. Following the entry of the Divorce Judgment, Decedent received quarterly and annual account statements from Defendants SAIC and Vanguard for his retirement accounts.

34. These account statements included a section titled "Beneficiaries" so that an account-holder, like Decedent, could determine whether he or she had a beneficiary designation on file with Defendants SAIC and Vanguard.

35. At all times after the entry of the Divorce Judgment, the SAIC and Vanguard account statements for Defendant's 401(k) retirement account stated that Decedent had "No Beneficiary On File."

36. At all times after the entry of the Divorce Judgment, the SAIC and Vanguard account statements for Defendant's ESRP retirement account stated that Decedent had "No Beneficiary On File."

37. Under the terms of Decedent's retirement accounts, Decedent's Estate would be the beneficiary of any account which did not have a valid beneficiary designation in effect at the time of his death.

38. Neither Defendant SAIC nor Defendant Vanguard informed Decedent before his death that the account statements which indicated that he had "No Beneficiary On File" were incorrect.

39. If Decedent did have a beneficiary on file for either or both of his retirement accounts, then the SAIC and Vanguard account statements were false and misleading, and Decedent reasonably relied upon these misrepresentations to his detriment.

40. Following Decedent's death on July 21, 2005, Defendant SAIC informed Plaintiffs that it considered Defendant Harrison to be the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts.

41. On or about February 1, 2006, Plaintiffs presented Defendant SAIC with a copy of the Divorce Judgment and informed said Defendant that they disagreed with its determination that Defendant Harrison is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts.

42. Defendant SAIC has refused to change its determination that Defendant Harrison is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts.

43. On or about February 21, 2006, Plaintiffs asked Defendant Harrison to renounce her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts by executing a renunciation of benefits under G.S. §31-B-1, et seq.

44. Defendant Harrison has refused to renounce her interest in either of Decedent's retirement accounts.

45. By refusing to renounce her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts, Defendant Harrison has breached the terms of the Divorce Judgment.

46. An actual and justiciable controversy exists between the parties as to who is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts.

47. All persons who have any interest in Decedent's retirement accounts have been joined as parties hereto.

48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the funds in Decedent's retirement accounts have been placed on hold by Defendant SAIC and that Defendant Vanguard will continue to hold these funds in trust pending resolution of this civil action.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
DECLARATORY ACTION TO DETERMINE THE BENEFICIARY OF DECEDENT'S
RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

49. The allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein by reference.

50. Decedent's Estate is the beneficiary of Decedent's 401(k) retirement account and ESRP retirement account for one or more of the following reasons:

- a. At the time of his death, Decedent had properly revoked all prior beneficiary designations such that his Estate is the beneficiary of each retirement account;
- b. Decedent never designated a beneficiary for his ESRP retirement account and his Estate is therefore deemed the beneficiary under said account;
- c. Defendants SAIC and/or Vanguard are barred from denying that Decedent's Estate is the beneficiary of his retirement accounts under the doctrine of equitable estoppel;
- d. Defendant Harrison has waived and forfeited all interest in Decedent's retirement accounts under the terms of the Divorce Judgment.

51. In the alternative, Plaintiff Gary A. Kohlbach is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts because Defendant Harrison waived and forfeited all interest in each account under the terms of the Divorce Judgment.

52. Plaintiffs request that the Court declare the beneficiary of each of Decedent's retirements accounts and enter a judgment in accordance with G.S. §1-253, et seq.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF: BREACH OF CONTRACT

53. The allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein by reference.

54. On September 25, 2000, Decedent and Defendant Harrison entered into a valid and binding contract as described in the Divorce Judgment.

55. Under the terms of the Divorce Judgment, Decedent was awarded complete ownership of his retirement accounts free and clear of any claims of Defendant Harrison.

56. Under the terms of the Divorce Judgment, Defendant Harrison was ordered to execute any and all documents necessary to release her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts.

57. On or about March 16, 2006, Defendant Harrison breached the terms of the Divorce Judgment by refusing to renounce her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts.

58. Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton, in her capacity as Administratrix of Decedent's Estate, seeks specific performance of the Divorce Judgment by the entry of an order which requires Defendant Harrison to renounce her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts.

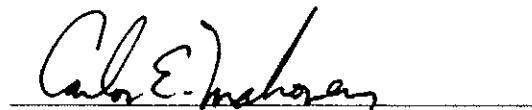

59. In the event that specific performance is not possible, Plaintiff seeks direct, consequential, and incidental damages from Defendant Harrison in an amount which exceeds $10,000.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief:

1. That the Court enter a judgment declaring that Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton, as Administratrix of the Estate of Gregory Frederick Kohlbach, is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts;
2. That, in the alternative, the Court enter a judgment declaring that Plaintiff Gary A. Kohlbach is the beneficiary of Decedent's retirement accounts;
3. That the Court enter a judgment ordering Defendant Harrison to specifically perform the terms of the Divorce Judgment by renouncing her interest in Decedent's retirement accounts;
4. That, in the alternative, the Court enter a judgment awarding Plaintiff Judith Kohlbach Fulton, as Administratrix of the Estate of Gregory Frederick Kohlbach, compensatory damages from Defendant Harrison in an amount which exceeds $10,000;
5. That Plaintiffs have and recover from Defendants their costs of court and pre-judgment interest, as allowed by law;
6. That all issues of fact be tried by a jury; and
7. For such other and further relief as may be deemed just and proper.

This the 5th day of July, 2006.
